Life's Little Lessons

By: Rebecca Shell

Over the past few years, one of the most important things I have learned is to be yourself. It's okay to be different. It's okay to be that unique individual that you are. If we were all the same, can you imagine how dull life would be? It would be like living in a world filled with robots where everything around us is black and white. There would never be any differences and there would be no such thing as an opinion. We would all wear the same style of clothes and have the same hairstyle. Everything around us would have another clone right beside it -- simply stated, there would be no purpose in life.

Yet that is not the case. We all have our own tastes that distinguishes us from one other. The world is not found with just black and white. There is a full spectrum of colors around us. The way we think, act, and speak are very distinct. We all have a different purpose in life. Some are meant to be teachers, and some doctors. Sometimes there are differing opinions. Sometimes we all get along, and other times, we don't get along. Sometimes, we may find that our friend is exactly opposite from us, but that is the beauty of your friendship. Our differences do not pull us apart; instead they bring us closer together. Instead of us trying to be like someone we're not, we should always remember that it's okay to be different. In fact, it's good to be different. Differences keep this world from being black and white. Differences in life give it bold, vibrant color.

My Future Plans

By: Jarad Magurany

I find the world of both business and law fascinating. The ideas and strategies involved in running a business or making a good law case are of great interest to me. I like the challenge of developing a plan of action or strategy. In my opinion, most businesses have to constantly develop new strategies to survive because of the competition with other companies. Legal advice is also needed to keep businesses within regulation of the law.

Law is a fundamental part of the business world. Companies have to consult strategies such as, increasing profits, with legal professionals Every business needs a lawyer to deal with the contracts and issues a business comes across. Law requires a person to find a strategy to protect some one legally with a form of rhetoric to support their position.

Together with a degree in business and law, I would like to be a consultant for a company. I am interested in consulting for business strategies and legal matters. Maybe someday I could start my own business.

instructor, participates in Student Pride projects, and worked as a volunteer in painting school playgrounds. He also is an active participant in the Adopt a Family program

After graduating Jarad plans to attend Washington University [St.Louis] and major in Pre-Law.

Rebecca Shell is the daughter of Dennis and Shelia Shell of Florissant, Missouri, and is at the top of her class at Mississippi Valley Christian School. She has been on the President’s honor roll for three years and has been a recipient of the Bible Memory Award each year as well.

She is the Vice President of the senior class, a member of the choir and yearbook staff, and has been active in the school’s theatre program. She has been recognized for being the top student in English, Algebra, and Family Living classes. She has been the recipient of a yearly award from AWANA Clubs International.

Rebecca has been very active in her church and in community activities. She is a regular at vacation Bible Schools, collects food and donations for the Sunshine Ministries, and participated in a number of mission trips for her church. She plans to travel to Honduras on a mission trip during the summer. Her activities center around her church and helping people

After graduating she plans to attend a college but has not decided on a major.

Literacy

from RI President Wilfrid J. Wilkinson

Literacy empowers people. It is the foundation for virtually all forms of education and an essential component of poverty reduction, social inclusion, and economic development. Despite the importance of literacy, there are more than 800 million people unable to read or write in the world today, and 64 percent are women and girls.

During the next year, the resource group will raise awareness of literacy issues and encourage Rotary clubs to undertake literacy projects both at home and abroad.

The Literacy Resource Group encourages Rotarians, in cooperation with the International Reading Association, to support literacy projects during Literacy Month in March 2008.

January Minutes

The January 14, 2008, meeting of directors of the Alton-Godfrey Rotary Club was called to order at 5:00 p.m., by President Josh Farley. Others in attendance were, Mike Tillman, Roland Hansen, Scott Neudecker, Ron Mayhew, Tom Turpin, Ford Phillips, Mike Osborne, Dick Jones, Bill Moyer, Ken Spells, Sam Stemm, Dan Saeger, Martha Morse, Rod Elias Allen McBride, Bryan White, Dana Eastman, and the Executive Secretary Melissa Seymour.

Others in attendance, Jeannine Kelly.

On a motion by Bryan White, seconded by Ford Phillips, the minutes and treasurer's reports were approved

In Club Administration, Bryan White reminded everyone that next week is a steak fry and the meal will be $15.00. He also reminded everyone to bring a giveaway item. For the Foundation, Dick Jones reported that the account balance is $15,999.64. Dick is looking for someone to be the second signature on the account. He suggested Dave Bartosiak be that person. Mike Osborne felt that the person should be an active member. No decision was made.

In Club Public Relations, correspondence was received from District about attending the Peoria Riverbend Hockey Night honoring the District Governor.

In Service Projects, the pecan sales had a profit of $4,688.50. It was discussed having a pecan swap next year to help members who need more or less than 10# of pecans. Concerning Chili Chowdown, it was discussed to increase the price of tickets this year. On a motion by Mike Osborne, seconded by Roland Hansen, it was approved to raise the ticket price to $7.00. It was also approved on a motion by Sam Stemm, seconded by Ford Phillips, that Chili Chowdown is a total member participation project. Alton Symphony Orchestra had previously asked for a $1000.00 donation to cover transportation expenses for the youth Christmas concert in December. A committee was formed of Sam Stemm, Rod Elias, John Rain, and Dave Walker to develop a policy on our procedure for allocation of funds. This committee recommended that we give the $1000.00 to the Symphony this year. The motion passed with 2 nays.

In Foundation, the board approved the annual report. Bill Moyer said the Foundation has a new mailing address that can be found on the Rotary site.

In Membership, E.J. Kupier has proposed Sister Mikela. Her membership was approved pending her attending two meetings.

In old business, the presentation equipment is still on order.

In new business, updating the black book was discussed. Dick Jones suggested that this be brought up at a Club Assembly on the best, least expensive way to do this, maybe new pages could be sent out as a .pdf file. Bill Moyer is going to get a cost for painting the Christmas tree trailer and having the Rotary emblem placed on it. The trailer is currently stored at the old landfill site

In mail/correspondence, a request was received from Pride, Inc. to place an ad in their annual meeting book. Jack Jacoby is going to be honored this year. The request was referred to committee.

The meeting adjourned at 5:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Melissa Seymour, Executive Secretary
